Vintage Vehicles of Sun City Needs YOU

As we close out November, our club is back to full strength — 450 members, seasonal folks returning, and a shop packed with tools, lifts, and expertise. But we're still facing a serious challenge: keeping the doors open all day.

We've added three new lifts, a mill, and a lathe in just the last two years. We have one of the best facilities anywhere, and members eager to help. But none of it matters if the shop isn't open.

A core group of volunteers monitors regularly — and they are deeply appreciated. But they can't cover every shift. Members are required to work a shift before earning 30-day shop privileges, yet after the seasonal rush, we are left with holes in the schedule. Everyone wants to service their vehicles as soon as they arrive in the fall and just before they leave in the spring.

And it's not just monitors. We're struggling to find members willing to serve as officers. The club's leadership — the folks who keep the gears turning behind the scenes — needs fresh hands and new energy. The founding members who built this place are slowly riding off into the sunset. If we don't step up, the future of this club could look very different. I'm sure the facility would make a great indoor dog park. Or a pickleball court. Maybe even a theater. But that's not our legacy.

Vintage Vehicles of Sun City Needs You.

Volunteer. Monitor. Lead.

Let's keep the shop alive and thriving — together.

Thanks for your dedication to this project gentlemen.

Rick Steiner's Spitfire project.

John Robinson putting fresh brakes on his Ram (“Dodge” for most of us) because stopping is kinda important too.

Glenn's Shorty getting some fresh color.

John Stoner's not so new motorcycle.

1930 AJS R12 250cc British bike which he has owned for about 10 years. It is getting a fresh transmission.

The bike was manufactured in Wolverhampton, England. AJS stands for A. J. Stevens & Co. Ltd.

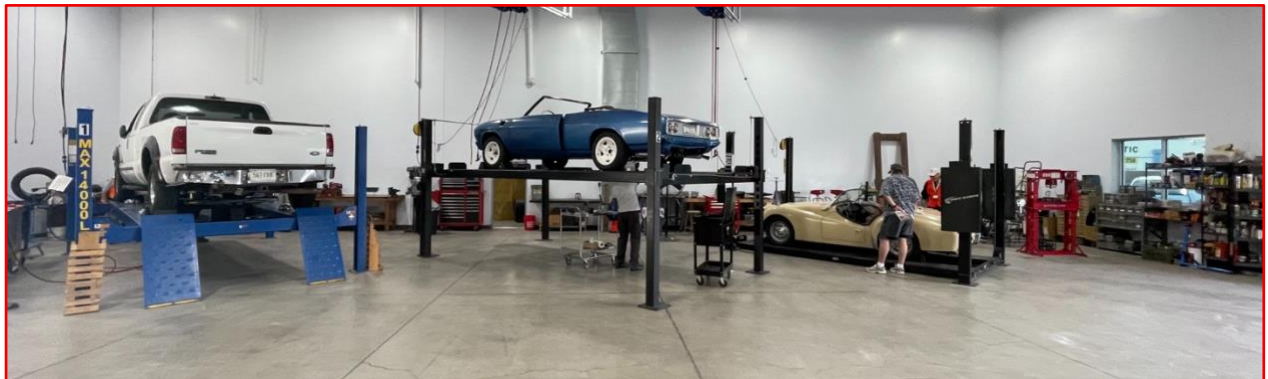

Ya gotta be real dedicated to own something that old and John has been searching quite a while for this transmission.

Cool Huh?

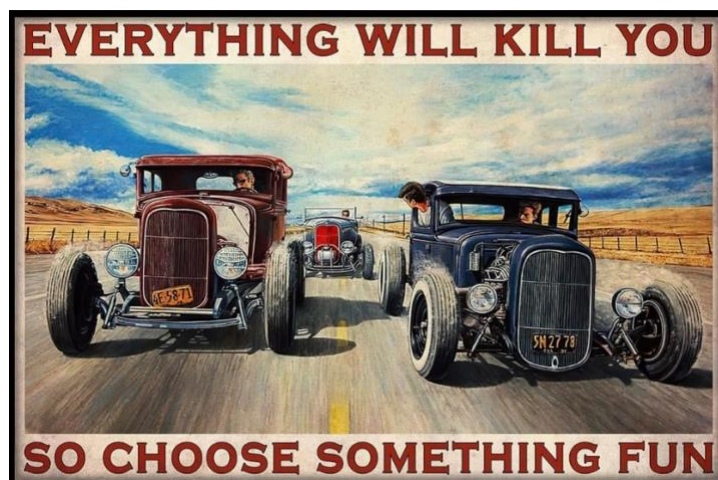

Our Sun City History is interesting and something to be proud of and preserved. If you haven't visited the Sun Cities Museum (click link at will) at 10801 Oakmont Drive just west of Oakmont (our first Recreation Center) you really owe it to yourself to do so. This being the nation's first Active Adult community, everyone's eyes were on us to see how it went. There are currently more than 2,900 55+ communities around the country today

There is some fascinating history we live in the middle of.

Shop Directions

I hope you all had a HAPPY THANKSGIVING, and hello to everyone from the shop!!

We continue to be busy with many long-term projects. Some quicker than others! Short term jobs are filling the shop in the morning, with the afternoons a bit quieter.

Regarding the 91 Toyota Camry (a donated car), sealed bid forms are available at the shop desk along with envelopes, for anyone that would like to bid! This is not limited to VVSC members, but anyone that would like a daily driver for themselves or maybe grandchildren, might have interest in this car. There have also been people that would like to have a local car in Sun City and fly back and forth to their other seasonal home. The highest bid wins! All bids should be time and date marked by the desk monitor!

We will open the sealed bids December 16th, 2025!

We need help to advance the Upholstery Shop. If we could get the interior washed down with TSP detergent, then paint the inside we can move on with power and move in!! There is a sign-up sheet to help with this at the desk in the shop.

We Need Monitors! Especially in the afternoons!

We have many new members that are picking up everywhere they can, but many of our experienced group are not joining the fun! Come on in and join us, if you can. Wishing all, a Very Merry Christmas!!!

Mike and the shop crew...

Club member Beth Smith moved to the valley of the sun at the age of seven. Since learning to sew at that young age her lifelong hobby has been creating clothing and other fiber arts. Through many years of membership, she has created seven quilts for raffle sales at the club's Spring Fling car shows. She is very talented and pretty darned cool to boot. The following shots are of a few of her creations.

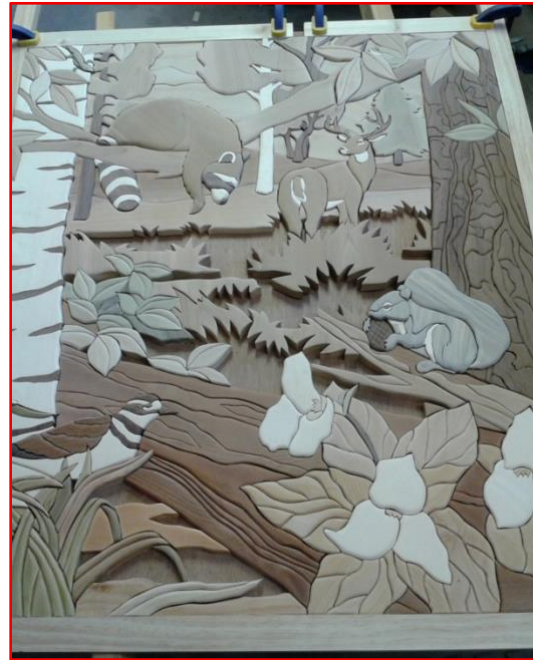

Hi, I am Roxie Whitney and I'm not sure how Connie roped me into this but here goes. Ron and I joined the car club when it first started. He was the webmaster for years and one day he decided I needed to be more active in the club so he volunteered me to be the Treasurer. I have a degree in accounting, so he thought that was a logical choice. I was Treasurer for 6 years and really enjoyed the job. Now Connie has volunteered me to be her assistant treasurer. When we got our first shop at Lakeview the club had to get a lot of tools so 3 of the members went to Harbor Freight. I met them there to pay the bill. They were like kids in a candy store loading up carts. I decided the check I had brought wouldn't cover the bill so went home, got the check book, went to Troy's for the double signature and then back to the store. Harbor Freight wouldn't take the club's check so, I ended up using my credit card and got all those points. 😊 Enough about the club, we have grown in both membership and facility.

Now for my life, as I said I have a degree in accounting and I worked in that field with small companies while the kids were young and then with Pillsbury and Borden's. Since we moved to Sun City in 2003, I have been active in the car club, woodshop, and Dance for Fitness which I'm now President. In my spare time I read, do jigsaw puzzles, work sudokus and work in the shop in our garage. Ron got me started making Intarsia projects back in MN and I have been doing them for over 30 years now. For a number of years, I have made these and donated for raffle sales at the annual Spring Fling Car Show.

These are some of my recent projects:

Notes $$ from your Treasurer

It is 2026 budget season so if you feel strongly about some piece of equipment or tool which you believe will be beneficial to the club, put your thoughts in writing and provide it to the director in charge of that area or the President Al Stiewing. Include at minimum, a cost estimate and justification.

As a reminder, the monthly financial reports are available on our website www.vintagevehiclesofsuncity.com under the Members Only tab and in a binder at the shop. Also, in this section you will find General Meeting Minutes, our Organization chart, contact information for our Officers and Directors, Current Rules and Regulations, Membership Roster, and The Monitor Sign-up link.

My duties at the 2026 Spring Fling Car Show will be as Treasurer' in support of the other disciplines only.

Thanks,

Connie Sherman

Our fundraiser raffle car was at the Goodguy's show in Scottsdale this November 21, 22, and 23. Thank you to those who volunteered to sell tickets at this event.

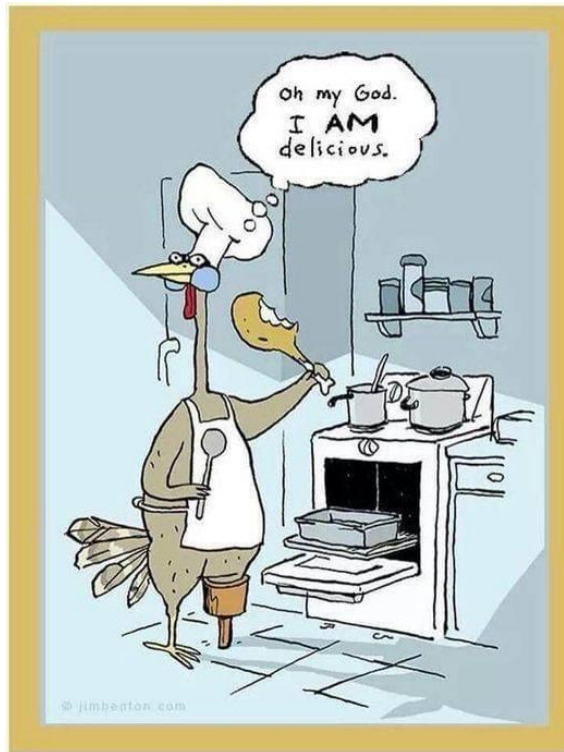

Looking pretty comfy, little dude sure hopes his ticket is the winner!

Alan Lund, Ted Larsen, Dan Jacobson, Joe Warfel, Tom Wilber, Joe Sanders, Ed Gordon, Gary Osier, Roxie Whitney, Denny Nichols, and Connie Sherman, all worked the Mustang ticket booth at Goodguy's Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

In lieu of helping with sales of the raffle tickets which will be our main Fundraiser for the year, buy a bunch by visiting the website or buy some at the shop!

These would make excellent Christmas stocking stuffers, with much better odds than a lottery ticket.

Just for fun, how many of you remember, The "RAT PACK"? That is the theme for this year's party. We have a new caterer for this year, but we have been told that last year's band can help us out with some of those tunes as well as general dance and background music.

Please make sure your receipt has your name and RCSC number on it!!! The desk monitor will help you out with this.

Ticket sales end January 19th, 2026, so we can get a final count to the caterer for correct food preparation.

FYI:

Your Sun City Fire District can help with an emergency lock box mounted to your home with entry keys. These will allow them to enter if you are unable to come to the door during a medical distress call. This can save them having to damage your door to help you. $80 is cheap insurance plus the peace of mind.

This may be done without charge if your income level qualifies.

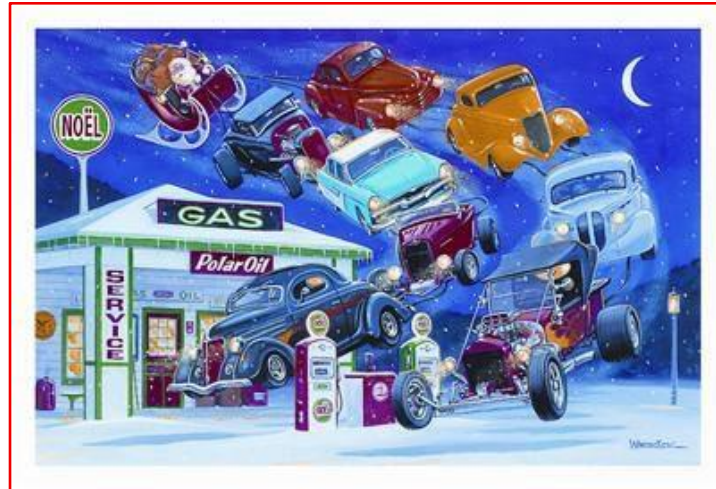

Also available; Help with smoke detector install or battery changes.

Another bonus is one of our club members does the install.

Weekend Wrench: Old Men With Old Cars

Last Sunday, I was at the local coffee shop with a couple of my old silverback buddies. It was our monthly get-together, during which we go to the Veterans Stadium Car Show and Performance Swap Meet in Long Beach, California; gaze longingly at the classics we have yet to own; pick up parts and tools we don't really need; and then adjourn to Dale's Diner.

I washed dishes there in my adolescence long ago, and for me it's like going back in time. It still has a jukebox with music from the '50s, and it still serves unrepentant great cuisine from the era, such as cheeseburgers, chili, french fries and Cokes. While swapping stories of my days of guts and glory with pals Wayne and Gary last weekend, I had a couple of epiphanies. The first was that I had gone full circle and was right back where I started, and the second was that I still enjoy my friends in the car hobby, maybe more than ever.

I like this bunch because old car buffs are mostly successful, intelligent, capable, logical, and usually family men. We love old cars, old music, and old spouses. And we realize all too clearly that, though civilization has made immense progress in the last 50 years, we have also lost a bit in the process. Take automotive styling for example. Coupes, roadsters and sedans are almost extinct. Everybody drives sport utility vehicles these days. Even Lamborghini makes an SUV! The paragon of swoopy sensational supercars is now building boxy people-haulers that have the aerodynamics of a brick.

And then there are those new pickup trucks the size of office buildings, driven by pharmacists and data managers. They are immaculate and their beds are pristine. Pickups were created as work vehicles, not statements of manhood. There was a song years ago that went: "As the farmer hauls another load away" You get the picture.

We are marooned today, whether we want to be or not. But that doesn't stop me from polishing up my '55 Bel Air Beauville wagon and going to the swap meet with guys who share my proclivities, like ogling old cars. There are so many we have yet to own. I'm talking about that Pepto-Bismol pink 1959 Cadillac Eldorado, sitting next to that sinister black 1965 GTO convertible, and that stunning gold 1953 Studebaker Starliner coupe over there next to my pal Gary's matching-numbers, red-and-white 1956 Chevrolet Sedan Delivery.

In high school, the jocks walked around sporting letterman jackets, but we proudly donned our car club coats. And while the athletes went to football practice, we polished and tuned our rides so we could pick up our girlfriends that evening and go to Dale's, followed by a movie at the theater across the street. Sadly, that theater is gone now, after becoming an adult theater, and then a church.

Back in my Clearasil days, my father referred to my pals as "your hoodlum buddies," but none of us ever got into real trouble, though we were spoken to sharply by the men in blue on occasion. We all ended up being successful in our careers and life in general. Plus, we still have our old cars, and enjoy working on them.

While the football players were throwing 50-yard passes, we were dialing-in Isky cams in Chevy small-blocks. A couple of fellows who went to my school went on to college football, and others got into hallucinogens. But of the guys in my car club, Jerry went on to have his own full-service garage in Santa Cruz, California, and Rick opened a brake and front-end shop. Tony owned a Honda dealership, and Frank taught auto shop as well as English and Latin at a local high school.

We were lucky. We got to live through the golden age of Southern California car culture, cruise to drive-in restaurants, go to Lions Drag Strip, and even go to drive-in movies with our main squeeze on Saturday night. This sometimes led to angora knitted dice hanging from our rearview mirrors, made by our girlfriends to signify that we were taken. After that, often came wedded bliss, and we ultimately replaced the dice with baby shoes.

But now that the kids are grown, most of us have long since stopped dialing-in Isky cams. We are now more into restoration and less into moving violations. However, we haven't lost our appetite for lumberjack breakfasts or chili burgers and swapping stories and restoration tips. And we also still help one another when we need to swap engines or replace clutches.

Dale's Diner is still in Long Beach, California, and remains just up from Veterans Stadium, and when the monthly swap meet is on, the place will be full of old car guys swapping stories.

They welcome youngsters too. Just keep in mind that they won't have sushi or kale on the menu. And if you are driving a new car, park it down the street.

It is Officer and Director nominations season. To that end, per our Rules and Regulations, your President Al Stiewing and Procedures Director Jim Fitzpatrick have established a nominating committee made up of, Jim Fitzpatrick, Mike Elliott and Stacy Benson. Many of us have been involved in one position or another since the club's inception and would love to step back. All board positions are one-year terms, so they are open to change annually. If no-one is willing to serve, the seated member may serve up to three years, but new faces and perspectives are always best.
